Walter Krobath

Mr. Krobath has successfully started in the year 2001 to rebuilt the „Pischof Autoplan“ which was a historical Airplane which was built the first time from Alfred Ritter von Pischof (1882 – 1922). He was an great Austrian aviation pioneer. The maiden flight was at 09.03.1910. The reconstruction of the Pischof Autoplan took more than 8000 hours under the strictest safety regulations.

Take off on 30th March 2003. Exactly 93 years after Pischof's maiden flight, the newly reconstructed Autoplan undertook its first much admired flight at the same location at Vienna Neustadt Airfield. This is the resurrection of legend.
